ISSUE 6

God saw all that he had made,
and it was very good.

And there was evening,
and there was morning--
the sixth day.

February 10, 2019 – Welcome family and friends! Remember that this Thursday is Valentine's Day. Jesus said it best; "It is more blessed to give than to receive." Receiving is good, but giving is the best.

Every Christian has the privilege and the responsibility to pray, live, and work "that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior" (I Timothy 2:1-3). I preached on this passage all last month. Think about it!

P-R-A-Y! Let us accept the challenge to pray for those who serve us in the government, locally, statewide, and national. Our governing authorities have a huge task before them every day. Those who serve our nation certainly need our prayers to God on their behalf for God's provision and protection for all of us. Let us also pray for our friends as well as our enemies. Our friends certainly need our prayers. We may not have many enemies, but I dare say we all have a few. And we need to offer our requests to the Father for ourselves. After all, doesn't He say in Philippians 4:6 – "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, LET YOUR REQUESTS BE MADE KNOWN TO GOD." The answer to our prayer to God results in the following blessing from God (7); "And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

L-I-V-E! God has blessed us with the stewardship of His great riches; our time, talents, and treasures. Let us accept the challenge of living every day generously, faithfully, and completely using God's gifts in the most effective and efficient way possible. What does 1 Corinthians 15:58 tell us? And this we will do! Sometimes it is difficult to balance living generously and living conservatively. Having the correct value system in place in our lives helps us to know when to say "yes" and when to say "no." When it comes to God and the opportunities that come our way to serve others who are in need we should live our lives with wisdom and generosity.

W-O-R-K! That word is scary to some, difficult for many, and almost unheard of for a few. Yet any endeavor requires it. Every accomplishment is achieved by it. Our country was founded on it. America has survived these many generations because of it, and will continue to thrive through it. We will be judged by it one day (Revelation 20:12). Jesus worked (John 9:4, 17:4). Paul worked. He fought the good fight. He finished the race. He kept the faith (II Timothy 4:7). We are commanded to work (I Corinthians 15:58; II Thessalonians 3:10-15). So let us pray, and live, and work. God will answer, and provide, and strengthen.
