1 Thessalonians 2:13

For this reason we also thank God without ceasing, because when you received the word of God
which you heard from us,
you welcomed it not as the word of men,
but as it is in truth, the word of God,
which also effectively works in you who believe.

Good morning brothers and sisters in Christ at Harding Street. Cindi and I are out of town today taking a few days to recharge and rejuvenate. Brother Geoffrey will be preaching this morning and Brother Bane will be preaching tonight. I know they will have good lessons from God's word that will help us all think and grow in our faith in God. Thank you so much for your love, your prayers, and your many words and deeds of kindness upon the death of my dad, Billy Burleson, who passed from this life into the hands of the Master on Wednesday morning, June 1st at the good age of 85. He was laid to rest close beside my mother, Shirley on Thursday. They were married for almost 70 years and were only parted from each other by death for only 7 months. He lived an exciting life with many peaks and valleys. Through it all he lived life without fear. He taught me and my sister and brothers the most important lessons of life any father could teach, what to do and what not to do. Though I am sad for us, I am very happy for him. God gave me the opportunity to pray with him and for him as death was slowly and surely approaching. When I said, Amen, he smiled and thanked me, then held my hand tightly as he fell asleep. My brother, Michael was there beside him early on Wednesday morning when he breathed his last and was not afraid because God always fulfills His promises. Psalm 23:4 says, "Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, because You are with me."

Next Sunday we will continue in our new series of sermons on "The Old Rugged Cross" and what carrying the cross of Jesus requires. Our plan is to take the word C-R-O-S-S and learn what Jesus requires when we decide to carry it into eternity. We have already looked at the "C" – COURAGE. Next Sunday we will focus on the "R" – REASON. God requires us to think, to reason out His plan for life and living every day. Life has many hills to climb and valley to cross, many challenges that have to be faced, many opportunities that we must take advantage of, many curves and corners that have to be adjusted to. We have to be able to think, to REASON.

I hope you will come back this evening to enjoy wonderful Christian fellowship, singing, prayer, and a good lesson from God's word with Brother Bane. Next Sunday evening at 5:00 we will focus our attention on things that never change in an ever-changing world. Our main texts are James 1:12-18 and Galatians 1:6-10. You will be so glad you invested your time and yourself in strengthening your faith and is the substance of your hope.

Remember also those families who are suffering in Texas and in New York. Remember those who are going through so much pain in Ukraine, Russia, and in the surrounding area. Prices are high everywhere. It seems that life gets tougher and tougher. Just keep on keeping on. The world can't take more than God can give. MB
