Good morning. Welcome. July already! It is such a joy to serve the Lord with you here at Harding Street. God is so good to us. I am thankful.

We all are living in tough times. God sees. He knows. He will provide. The world cannot take from us more than God can give. Almost every day I speak with someone who is in some kind of need; physical, emotional, financial, relational, spiritual, and often a combination of these. Usually, one of the first questions I ask them is, "Are you a Christian?" Many of them say, "Yes" but as I discuss what a Christian actually is, they begin to make excuses as to why they "haven't met with the church in years" or "haven't read the Bible in who knows how long" or "haven't prayed to God for the help they need" or "haven't asked for forgiveness for the reasons they are in such need" or "haven't helped anyone with anything" or "haven't worked in so long" or . . ." I could go on and on. Don't we realize that all we need or want would be supplied by our Father, God when and as we come to Him in repentance and honesty forfeiting our own will, seeking to know His will and after knowing it, doing it? What does the Bible tell us? Take another look at Matthew 6:33. Just before Jesus made the statement in verse 33, He said, "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (the world or literally money)." We all must make up our minds as to who we will follow in our lives. Jesus then talked about worry and why we do. He talked about God's power, provision, and promises to those who love Him and how there is no need to worry. Then He gave the answer to having our needs met; "But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and ALL THESE THINGS SHALL BE ADDED TO YOU." Yes. God supplies our every need when and as we do what He asks us to do.

Health, happiness, prosperity, and personal growth requires nutritious food (God's word), reasonable exercise (application of God's word, doing what God says to do), and time (patience). I read a "funny" the other day about a lady who spoke to the preacher about his lessons. She told him that she got very little if anything at all from the lessons he presented. He suggested that a person gets out of anything as much as they put into it. A true statement indeed.

Today we will conclude our lessons series "Walking in the Pathway of the Old Rugged Cross – The Requirements" with a lesson on the final letter in C-R-O-S-S – SINCERITY. Just what does it mean to be sincere? As we walk with Jesus carrying our cross, we must present what is TRUE inside and out. We must be AUTHENTIC in who we are, not conforming but allowing ourselves to be transformed by God through His word. We must be SERIOUS, honest, and pure in Christ Jesus every day. This evening at 5:00 we will take a look at God's MORAL LAWS that never change. MB
