Hello family and friends and WELCOME. We are blessed to be able to worship and study together today in spirit in the truth. Look to the left at the long list of those we know and love who are sick. Please remember them in your daily prayers to God for healing so they can once again unite with us in Christian fellowship. Pray especially for our dear Christian sisters Rosetta Chenault and Sister Carolyn Chapman as they try to get through their respective issues and for Callen Rowland as he recovers from heart surgery.

We hosted the Area-Wide Fellowship this past Tuesday evening and what a fantastic evening we enjoyed! The Annex Building was filled with 100+ happy Christian brothers and sisters. The singing was heavenly, and the food was delicious. Thank you to those who worked so hard to make this event such a terrific success.

We are once again in the midst of electing the governing officials will serve our state and nation in the coming days. Early voting has begun and election day, November 8th is only a few days away. Please exercise your right and duty as an American citizen to cast your VOTE for a candidate and a law that will help us individually and collectively to "lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth" (1 Timothy 2:1-4). I will pray. I will think. I will study. I will vote. May God bless us as we seek first His kingdom and His righteousness in life and living.

From the story that follows, let us think of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ...There is a story of an old man and a young man on the same platform before a vast audience of people. As a part of the program, each man was to repeat from memory the words of the 23rd Psalm. The young man was trained in the best speech techniques and drama and gave, in the language of an ancient silver-tongued orator, the words of the beautiful 23rd Psalm; "The Lord is my Shepherd..." When he finished his recitation, the audience clapped their hands and cheered, asking him for an encore so that they might hear again his wonderful words.

Then the old gentleman, leaning on his cane, stepped up to the front of the platform, and in a feeble, shaking voice, repeated the same words, "The Lord is my Shepherd..." When he finished and was seated, no sound came from the audience. People seemed to pray. In silence, the young man stood to make the following statement, "Friends, the difference between me and the old man is this: I know the 23rd Psalm, but he knows the Shepherd." DO YOU KNOW THE SHEPHERD?

Today Geoffrey will be sharing a lesson from God's word. And tonight, Brother Bane will be preaching. Matt will be teaching the Young Adult Class today. I am away this week preaching in a gospel meeting in Lexington, South Carolina with the White Knoll Church of Christ. Please pray for God's word to convince and convict the hearts of those who will hear and for safe travels for me when I return home on Thursday. Thank you. MB
