Good morning. Welcome. Take a look to the left and notice our family and friends who are sick and in need of our prayers and care and God's intervention and provision. Remember to pray for them. God says in James 5:16; "Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much." Also note the calendar to the right and remember our family and friends who are celebrating birthdays and anniversaries. I always appreciate receiving cards and comments when it is my birthday or anniversary, and so I must return the favor and congratulate others. Then take note of a few of the upcoming activities of the church at Harding Street and include these activities in your plans. We are blessed. Let us be a blessing to each other and to others. We all need a blessing.

We are in for a treat this morning with a new song leader directing our song service, Brother Matt Prysock. Geoffrey, Angel, and several from our youth group have been at Y.O.U. (Youth Outreach University) in Conway this weekend. The youth conference concludes today. I know they have had a wonderful time of fellowship and study and will come back to Harding Street even more excited about Christ and living the Christian life every day.

This morning we will continue in our Sunday sermon series "Focus on Jesus and what He began to teach" and look at another earthly story with a heavenly meaning: "The Good Samaritan." Jesus taught this parable to answer a man's question, "And who is my neighbor?" There are two points to the answer to this question: #1 – Love God, and #2 – Love your neighbor. We will focus our attention on Jesus' lesson on love in action. The Bible teaches us about faith in action in James 2:18: "But someone will say, 'You have faith, and I have works. Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works.'"

The same idea can be said for love and action; But someone will say, 'You have love, and I have action. Show me your love without your action, and I will show you my love by my action.' Like faith showing itself in deeds, so is love showing itself in action.

At 5:00 this evening we will continue to "Focus on Jesus, who He is: the King of kings and Lord of lords, and what He began to do." Jesus is the King of love, the King of power, and the King of action. He is also the KING OF KINDNESS. Kindness loves the sinner but hates sin. Kindness weeps with those who weep and rejoices with those who rejoice, not the other way around. Kindness always offers a helping hand to others. I hope you will return to the evening worship hour to hear this lesson. You will be glad you did. May God bless us all with a heart like His, with health, happiness, and one day, heaven. MB
