Hello and welcome family and friends. Thank you for being here today for worship, fellowship, and Bible study. You know that faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God. Jesus said, "Man shall not live by bread alone but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God." Thank you to everyone who "tuned in" to our Bible study this past Wednesday on Facebook Live. I'm sorry we couldn't meet due to the wintry weather, but happy to still study God's word. We had 367 families watch and participate in our study. God is good.

Our weather has really been a bear lately; 5 one day and then 65 the next. This affects us all in many ways. My heat has been on and off for the past few days while I wait on the parts for my system. Several of us have been dealing with various forms of illness. I am so happy that the sleet and snow is gone and it is supposed to be 60 today. We all know that winter will soon give way to spring. God knows what He's doing. It will be so good to see the flowers popping up and the trees budding out again in just a few weeks.

The Harding Street congregation is doing just fine, continuing in the Way of Jesus Christ, simple and steadfast, holding tightly to the grace and truth that is in Christ. It seems that many in the world around us continue to move further away from God. Is faith in God and living the Christian life so difficult to "get?" Pleasing God is the way to happiness and prosperity and He tells us how to do it (Hebrews 11:6). And what about repentance? When we sin; saying "I'm sorry" and changing our hearts, minds, and actions is common sense and Biblical truth (Acts 2:38). Is God asking us to do something that we cannot do? Of course not. And what about confession? Either we deny Jesus as the Christ, or we confess Him. There is no in-between (Matthew 6:24). And baptism? No matter what people say or teach to the contrary, baptism is required simply because Jesus declared it to be (Matthew 28:18-20). And is true sincere Christian living so difficult to grasp? Why do some feel as though these basic principles are from some bygone era and should be discounted as "old-fashioned" and irrelevant in this, our modern-day society? Fact is: The Bible is indeed a very old book; but still relevant, still vibrant, still alive, still convicting, still needed, still true in this day in which we live. And here at Harding Street we will read it, respect it, rely on it, teach it, and preach it until our Savior comes again.

Today we will ask the question: "Who are we?" and look to the Christians in Berea in Acts 17 for an example of who we should be, can be, and are endeavoring to be. On the evening we will focus once again on Jesus. He gave His life for you and me. MB
