I will lift up mine

Good morning. Welcome. You are looking great! We are thankful today for another opportunity to meet together to worship God in spirit and in truth. These days are good days. What does God say in PSALM 128? Read it and live it. When you do, you'll see. When you don't, you'll see.

Take a look around you this morning and introduce yourself to our guests. Geoffrey, Drayke, Ron, and Cindi and I stand at the door every Sunday to welcome members and guests to our assembly here at Harding Street. While we are welcoming in the lobby, you can welcome in the auditorium. Everyone needs a handshake and a cheerful "Hello" with they come for worship. You might need to explain our process. Our guests might need to know about our Bible classes or they may have other questions. Being a Christian is the most rewarding experience in life. If you are not a Christian, you can become a Christian today. Simply listen to the sermon today on "God's Eternal Promise – Forgiveness" and respond at the end of the sermon during the invitation song. Just step out in the aisle and walk up to the front. We will not embarrass you at all. Brother Bane or I will speak to listen to your request and help you with the steps you need to take to become a Christian. Trust and obey. There's no other way to be happy in Jesus, than to trust and obey. God's plan of salvation is simple: hear His word, believe it, repent of your sins, confess Jesus, and be baptized. When you arise from the waters of baptism, you are a Christian. If you are a Christian and have not been living the Christian life the way you should, repent and come home to the light. May God help us to walk in the Light and worthy of our calling.

The church will go no farther than the minds and purposes of the individual members. The church cannot function at its best on the mere wishes of people. Being a member of the church is a special privilege. And with that privilege comes special responsibilities. Remember that NOTHING will run itself unless it's running downhill. We must be ever climbing toward heaven.

One day a man approached a great Christian personal worker and said, "I believe in leading people to Jesus, but I do not like your method." In response, the personal worker said, "Neither do I, how do you do it?" Confused, the critical man stammered, "Well, I do not know that I do it at all." "Then," the worker said, "I like the way I do it better that the way you DON'T do it." Don't be concerned, nor surprised if what you DO is criticized. There are always people who can find fault with every plan. MISTAKES ARE MADE, WE CAN'T DENY, BUT ONLY BY THOSE WHO TRY.
