Good morning. Welcome. Rain or shine today is a terrific day to worship God in spirit and in truth and to build one another up in Christ. It is the Lord's Day. Thank you for being here. May God bless us with all we need to fulfill His purpose.

Remember your "valentine" on Wednesday!

JUST SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Lest we forget Gethsemane...There were four companies of people there:

- (1) The Lord alone...praying
- (2) The three disciples...sleeping
- (3) The eight disciples...waiting
- (4) The murderous mob...approaching

The further from the Lord, the greater the number was the crowd. Is it not the same today?

MY PREACHER

My preacher shapes his sermons from A to Z

In clear and forth right language and aims them straight at me.

And when he gets to preaching, I look around to see,

If there might be another deserving more than me.

But every soul looks saintly, their hearts to heaven turned,

While I, in my conviction can only sit and squirm.

You know, I often wonder if I should miss a day,

Would he, without a target, have anything to say?

Our lesson today is entitled "True Christianity." We will consider the Christian life in terms of "putting away" whatever we need to put away to "put in place" the thinking, speech, and the actions of Jesus. In Luke 6 Jesus spoke about a wise person who digs deep and lays down a foundation. He also speaks about a foolish person who tried to live life without a proper foundation. We must put away sin to put in place right living. We must put away worry to put in place patience. We must put away laziness and get to work. We must put away ignorance to put in place learning. We must put away selfishness to add love. On the evening we will focus our attention on friendship with Jesus and ask, "Am I a friend to Jesus?" Friends like to be together. Friends speak often of each other. Friends are eager to please each other. Friends remain loyal to each other through the good times and the bad times. Are you a friend to Jesus?

Next Sunday, February 18 we celebrate our February birthdays and anniversaries with a potluck lunch together in the Annex Building. MB
