Good morning. Welcome. Today is the third Sunday in the month and so we will do things just a little bit differently. Worship hour at 9:00, Bible classes at 10:00, then we will celebrate May birthdays and anniversaries with a potluck lunch together in the Annex building. I hope you planned to stay and enjoy the wonderful fellowship we always enjoy. After lunch enjoy the day with your family and friends. We will not meet at 5:00 p.m. today.

CHANGE! What a word! Something we want and don't want, frightening and yet interesting and exciting. Change is going on all around us, above us, and within us. Change – We may not accept it readily. We may love it and hate it, look forward to it or deny it, accept it or reject it, bless it or curse it, try to alter it or pretend it doesn't matter, but either way change just keeps on keeping on. All we can do is adjust, "roll with the punches" and move forward with it and in it. What else can we do? When we adjust to change, change can be a friend. Don't believe what I'm saying is true? Look in the mirror. Look around. The gospel never changes. And the gospel changes...you and me and the world.

My grandchildren tell me, "PopPop, things today are not the same as they were when you were our age. Things have changed." I know this is true. When I was a boy, my mother would send us outside this time of the year to play. You know, I rarely see children playing outside anymore. We had no cell phones, computers, or video game consoles. To talk to our friends, we had to walk two miles or so over to their house or ride our bike if we had one to see if they could play. We had no playground equipment other than trees to climb, barns to play in, and forests and fields to explore. We had no swimming pools or splash pads. We did have streams, rivers, lakes, and ponds to swim in. There were no organized sports except for the one's we "organized" in the backyard, like "the goal line is the fence on my side and your shoes on your side" or maybe setting up the bases for baseball; first base is a soda can, second is a baseball glove, third a paint can lid, and home is piece of cardboard. We didn't always have a bat and a ball. Sometimes we had a stick and a rolled up wrapped up something held together with rubber bands. Ever played Hide and Seek? How about Mother May I? What about "school" with a rock and steps? No? We did have an imagination, that's for sure. I'm glad things have changed. And I'm sad things have changed.

God doesn't change. He is the same, yesterday, today, and forever. God does change. He changes us, makes us better, stronger, wiser and readies us for all the changes that lie ahead. I do not know what challenges and opportunities that are in the near and distant future. God knows. And I am so thankful for that. May God bless us all as we keep trusting and obeying Him every day.
