Hello and welcome. We are so happy to meet together again on the Lord's Day for worship, study, and fellowship. Summer is on the horizon (20th) and though school is out for a few weeks we're busy showing and sharing the good news of salvation in Jesus Christ by the living the life Jesus would have us live. Many of us are planning a vacation or maybe a "stay-cationing" at home. Please stay safe. Put the phone away. Drive the speed limit. Don't hurry. Don't forget who you are. Be the Christian Christ calls us to be. Be patient. Conquer worry with prayer. Be kind. Take a deep breath and enjoy every moment of life. God is blessing us. We're thankful.

I am so happy to have been your minister, one of your elders, and your friend over these past 5 years and 7 months. On June 30th after more than 35 years in full-time ministry, I will be retiring. Social Security here I come. Ha! Cindi and I sold our house in May and have made the move to Conway for a few more months until Cindi retires. Then we will see where our next adventure will take us. From what I hear we will have a "going away" party to celebrate my retirement on Sunday evening, June 30th after the evening worship hour up in the Annex Building. No gifts please. Thank you for your friendship. May God bless us all.

Okay. Since I'm retiring, we need to select the next minister who will serve the congregation over the next decade or so. The elders have been in prayerful deliberation for the past few weeks and have selected three good men to introduce to the congregation for consideration to be the next minister at Harding Street: Geoffrey Bane, David Stewart, and Jeremiah Schnell. Geoffrey spoke last Sunday. David Stewart will preach next Sunday, June 9th. Jeremiah Schnell will be preaching on June 23rd. After hearing these men, please let one of the elders know what you think about which one would be the best fit for the church as our minister. Of course, the elders will meet to discuss each candidate, make the selection, and introduction him at the end of the month, Lord willing.
