Good morning. Welcome. I have really enjoyed the past 5 years and 8 months as your elder, minister, and friend. We have had many wonderful moments on the mountain top. Many new Christians have been added to the Lord's church through our work together for the cause of Christ. There have been so many positive changes. Just look around today. Of course we have visited the valley too. We've experienced many of our dear Christian brothers and sisters leave this world to rest in Paradise. There have been a few negatives, not that many, but a few simply because we are human beings who live in the world. It is my prayer and desire that we all have experienced happiness and growth in God's grace as we have shared in His abundant blessings together.

Today marks my last Sunday as one of the elders and your minister at Harding Street, but our friendship will never have a last Sunday or a last any day. Cindi and I sold our house last month and have made the move to Conway temporarily. Where we go from there is a mystery. But think about it. Life is an adventure. We should be on it. God is already at work and will provide a terrific minister to serve with you in the coming days. God will give the Harding Street eldership the wisdom and vision to know this new minister and his family and see him through the maze of discussion, deliberation, and thoughtful prayerful patient decision. Please stand firm with the elders and deacons and reject the enemy's temptation to grow complacent and negligent in your duties as members of the Lord's church which He loved so much and purchased with the blood of His one and only Son. Our elders need every member of the church of Christ at Harding Street to stand beside them in every way to see that God is glorified in every decision. Now is the time to stand up together. Souls are at stake. Our neighbors and the area congregations around us will look to see what will happen. Let us turn our eyes upward and forward. Jesus has already told us how He feels about Christians who look back. You can read Jesus' words in Luke 9:62. And what did the apostle Paul say about looking back? In Philippians 3:13-14 he said that looking back was the "one thing" he refused to do; "forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead." He pressed onward and upward toward God in Christ Jesus. Don't be like some of our brethren who simply can't let go of the past. How sad for them. And if you're reading this and find that you are doing just that, make a change. Be different. Look up. Press on. Don't look back except to remember the grace of our Lord Jesus and what He did for each of us on that old rugged cross. Pray for us and we will be praying for you.

I will not give up. I will not give in. I will not give out. I will not look back. I will look upward and forward. I hope you will do the same. God is so very good to us. Thank you for your friendship, your support, and your love and generosity toward Cindi and me. God bless us all. MB
